1. PROGRAMME

Sunday, 23rd September, 1973, at 3 p.m. Visit to see Sir Cedric Morris's garden at Benton End, Hadleigh. Although there are always many plants of interest in Sir Cedric's garden, at this time of year the main features are Colchicums and Autumn Crocus. There will be a plant stall and members are asked to bring a contribution in kind for tea.

Saturday, 3rd November, 1973, at 2.30 p.m. (Note this time). Annual General Meeting at the Guildhall, Lavenham. After the usual business, i.e. appointment of Officers for 1974, etc., Mr. Cyril Grange will give a film show on "Flower Hunting in the French Alps". Plant stall and contribution in kind for tea please.

2. SEED DISTRIBUTION

Members are asked to bring along any seeds which they have collected to either of these meetings for subsequent distribution at the first two meetings to be held in 1974.

3. Members attention is drawn to the following plant sales:

20th October - 11.30 to 4.30. at Cressing Temple Barns.
Nr. Braintree, in aid of the Essex Red Cross funds.

10th November. All day at Truman's Brewery, West Bergholt in aid of "World Wild Life" funds.

I/We hope to attend the Meeting on 23rd September at Benton End
