Chairman: Mr. R.F. Britten
Secretary: Mr. A.O. Pask

Steering Committee: Mrs. J. Moullin, Miss J. Robinson, Mrs. L. Walmsley
Mr. B.O. Tickner, Mr. L. Wilkinson.

Annual Subscriptions:

Subscriptions - 50p or 75p for two members of the same family are now due and should be sent to the Treasurer please as soon as possible.

Membership:

A list of members is enclosed. Although there is no restriction on membership, the Steering Committee feels that new members should be on the recommendation of existing members and confined to genuinely enthusiastic gardeners.

Programme:

Thursday 27th February at 2.30 p.m. Mr. D.C. Randall, Monks Eleigh has very kindly agreed to show members round his orchid houses. Please arrive punctually because this will be a conducted tour, when members will not only be able to see orchids growing but will be able to see the method of packing and despatch.

Monks Eleigh is about half-way between Lavenham and Bildeston, and the firm trades under the title of 'The Send an Orchid Service'.

Members who are able to attend the meeting on 27th February may wish to make a note that Mr. Randall is holding an Open Day on Easter Saturday, 29th March 1975, from 9.30 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. An entrance fee will be charged in aid of 'East Anglian Charities'. A number of plants for sale in flower spike will be available.

Mr. & Mrs. Richard Britten have invited members to their house, The Old Forge, Chelsworth for tea. Please bring a contribution in kind for tea. There will be a plant stall at Mr. Britten's house.

Saturday 5th April at 2.30 p.m., Lavenham Guildhall Mr. Roy Lancaster will give a talk entitled 'Plant Collection in the Himalayas'. Please bring a contribution in kind for tea. There will be a plant stall.

Saturday 26th April Dr. Youngman, Wilberforce Road, Cambridge will be pleased to show members around his garden between 2.00 and 3.00 p.m. Wilberforce Road is off the Madingley Road A45 going West, more or less opposite Churchill College. From Haverhill take left turn at the first traffic lights near Addenbrookes Hospital, then right at the next ones, over Coe Fen Causeway, keeping left up Barton Road and turn right by a telephone box up Grange Road. Wilberforce Road is the first turning on the left when you turn into the A45 - look for the EAGG sign.
