PROGRAMME:

Sunday 25th May 3.00 p.m. Mr. Maxwell Eley, East Bergholt Place, Suffolk, by Colchester, has kindly agreed to members visiting his garden. Tea will be provided by Mr. Eley but members are asked to make a contribution towards the East Bergholt Church Restoration Fund. Look for the E.A.G.G. sign but if lost telephone East Bergholt 230. There will be a plant stall.

Saturday 21st June at 2.00 p.m. Visit to Talbot Manor, Fincham, King's Lynn by the kind invitation of Mr. L. Maurice Mason. This is a very large garden and well worth a special visit. A charge of 30p per head is made to all visitors to the garden, all of which is donated to charity.

Because of the distance involved and the extent of the garden a coach has been booked (Cuttings of Brockley) for which the fare will be £1.00 per head. Pay on the coach please. Members may bring friends with them.

The coach will start from Lavenham Market Square (by the Guildhall) at 11.00 a.m. and travel via Stanningfield and Gt. Whelnetham (pick-up at Mrs. Wolton's, Great Whelnetham Hall, at 11.15 a.m. (members wishing to be picked up here are asked to park in Mrs. Wolton's forecourt and not on the roadside). The coach will then proceed to the Ram Meadow carpark at 11.30 a.m. Please indicate on the slip where you wish to be picked up as this is MOST IMPORTANT. It is suggested that members bring a pic-nic lunch. Leave Talbot Manor at 5.00 p.m. at the latest.

Friday 11th July at 3.00 p.m. Lady Mallaby, Down-the-lane, Chevington, near Bury St. Edmunds, has invited the Group to go to her house and garden. This is a small garden of general interest and during tea, members are invited to seek advice on any of their gardening problems (a panel will be arranged). Take the Bury to Haverhill road via Horringer and then take the first right, which says to Chevington. Look for the E.A.G.G. sign which will be about half a mile from the turning mentioned above. If travelling from the Haverhill direction, go through Chedburgh and then turn left at the Chevington junction. There will be a plant stall and please bring a contribution in kind for tea.
